

Kuaishou Outsourcing Personnel Security Management Regulations

These regulations aim to strengthen the information security management of Kuaishou outsourcing personnel, standardize their behavior, and prevent and control outsourcing risks. These regulations clarify the management principles of outsourcing personnel and the principle of minimum necessary authorization, and regulate the security management of the appointment, assignment and dismissal of outsourcing personnel, confidentiality obligations stipulated in their confidentiality agreements, use of equipment, company rules and regulations, related information processing rules, use of assets and other matters.